

AJR Street Outreach Services

Providing Free & Confidential Services for Homeless Young People

Street Outreach Services

The AJR Street Outreach program is designed to locate and make contact with homeless young people (12-23) living on the streets of South King County. The goal of the program is to provide assistance and referrals in an attempt to transition homeless young people off of the streets and into safe and stable housing. Outreach Services include:

- Shelter
- Clothing
- Blankets/Backpacks
- Counseling Referrals
- Treatment Referrals
- Child Care Referrals
- Food
- Hygiene Supplies
- Transportation
- Child Care
- Medical Referrals
- Dental Referrals

Case Management Services

Young people enrolled in outreach case management services are provided with enhanced services that include comprehensive case planning, access to AJR housing services, educational and vocational services and specialized services for sexually exploited young people. All case management services are confidential & free of charge.

- Family Reunification
- Educational Support
- Move-In Expenses
- Financial assistance
- Wraparound Services
- Resume Building & Employment Support
- Housing Services
- Vocational Support
- Rent Subsidies
- Utility Expenses
- Life skills Training
- Documentation Retrieval

Housing & Shelter Services

South King County Youth Shelter
Emergency shelter for homeless & abandoned 10-17 years old (253-833-5666).

Severson House
Transitional Living Program for homeless young men 15-17 years old (253-804-8866).

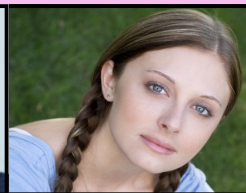

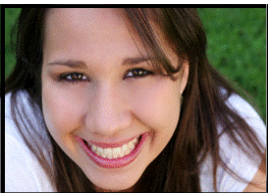

Coming Up Program
Scattered site housing program for South King County homeless young adults (18-23). The program provides housing, case management, mental health counseling, substance abuse treatment, and vocational skill building and is provided in collaboration with Valley Cities & Kent Youth & Family Services.

253-350-0836 • 253- 740-7189 • Toll-Free Pager 1-888-841-0164 • www.ayr4kids.org

AJR Street Outreach Services

Providing Free & Confidential Services for Homeless Young People

Street Outreach Services

The AJR Street Outreach program is designed to locate and make contact with homeless young people (12-23) living on the streets of South King County. The goal of the program is to provide assistance and referrals in an attempt to transition homeless young people off of the streets and into safe and stable housing. Outreach Services include:

- Shelter
- Clothing
- Blankets/Backpacks
- Counseling Referrals
- Treatment Referrals
- Child Care Referrals
- Food
- Hygiene Supplies
- Transportation
- Child Care
- Medical Referrals
- Dental Referrals

Case Management Services

Young people enrolled in outreach case management services are provided with enhanced services that include comprehensive case planning, access to AJR housing services, educational and vocational services and specialized services for sexually exploited young people. All case management services are confidential & free of charge.

- Family Reunification
- Educational Support
- Move-In Expenses
- Financial assistance
- Wraparound Services
- Resume Building & Employment Support
- Housing Services
- Vocational Support
- Rent Subsidies
- Utility Expenses
- Life skills Training
- Documentation Retrieval

Housing & Shelter Services

South King County Youth Shelter
Emergency shelter for homeless & abandoned 10-17 years old (253-833-5666).

Severson House
Transitional Living Program for homeless young men 15-17 years old (253-804-8866).

Coming Up Program
Scattered site housing program for South King County homeless young adults (18-23). The program provides housing, case management, mental health counseling, substance abuse treatment, and vocational skill building and is provided in collaboration with Valley Cities & Kent Youth & Family Services.

253-350-0836 • 253- 740-7189 • Toll-Free Pager 1-888-841-0164 • www.ayr4kids.org